

Personal Points

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Dr. H. M. Marsh has returned to Danville.

Charles L. McCarthy left last evening for Cincinnati.

G. C. McDonald has returned from a visit to Georgetown, O.

Miss Anna Darnall is the guest of Miss Anna Scudder at Carlisle.

Miss Lulu Ricketts of Cincinnati is visiting the family of W. A. Tolle of the Fifth Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nesbitt returned last night from their bridal tour.

Mrs. Lulu Ricketts of Cincinnati is visiting the family of W. A. Tolle of the Fifth Ward.

Charles Stewart of Ashland has returned home after spending a few days in Maysville.

Mrs. Dr. J. A. Reed, Miss Hattie Forman and Master Stanley Reed have gone to the mountains.

Reginald Stewart has returned to Ashland after a pleasant visit to his sister, Mrs. Mary Nicholson.

Wilbur Means of Concord was visiting his cousins, Misses Anna and Nellie Means of the Fifth Ward.

Mrs. Anna Thomas of Manchester is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. McMullen.

Miss Katherine Collins Ross and Miss Mamie Wormald have returned from a visit to Miss Katherine Ross Collins of Covington.

T. W. Housh, a citizen of Aberdeen in the long ago, but now living at Salem, Ill., is visiting friends and relatives at his old home.

Taylor Thompson, an esteemed citizen, died in Fleming at the age of 82.

The contract has been let for the new Baptist Church at Augusta. The cost will be $5,585.55.

Curtis Burnham Hume and Miss Rella Frank Harber were married in Richmond Wednesday night.

Edward B. Garrard was found dead in bed at the home of his uncle, Edwin G. Bedford, near Paris.

At Catlettsburg twenty persons were poisoned by eating ice cream. Prompt medical aid saved them.

N. O. Brooks, a former Covington merchant, is reported at death's door at his home in Winchester.

The Senate has voted to add $700,000 annually to the pension list by increasing the pensions of those who lost limbs by service in the Union army.

James P. Harbeson of Fleming is formally announced as a candidate for Circuit Judge in this District.

The towboat Iscro sank in fifteen feet of water near Hickman. No lives were lost. Can't say now I see her.

The Senate has added to the sundry civil appropriation bill $25,000 for the Federal building at Cincinnati.

The Missouri river is higher now than it has been since the spring of 1881, and higher than any June rise for many years.

Albert Klund, the young fellow who stole a horse in Augusta and sold it in Cincinnati, will be sent back to Kentucky.

The members of St. Patrick's Benevolent Society are requested to meet at their hall on Sunday the 9th inst. at 2 o'clock. Business of special importance.

A pair of colored butchers were arrested at Cumminsville, Cincinnati, while in the act of carving steaks from the putrid carcass of a horse. This is one time when the police got on the "scent" of their game.

REMEMBER, THE LEDGER prints "Help Wanted," "Lost," "Found," and similar notices not of a business character, free of charge. The only thing we require is that the copy be sent in before 9 o'clock on day of publication.

"TIPPECANOE" EVANS of North Fork has sent THE LEDGER a variegated ear of corn, of last year's crop, grown on his place. Mr. Evans has the misfortune to be a Democrat, although his proper front name is William Henry Harrison Evans.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of James D. Gunn are requested to settle at once. Persons having claims against said estate are hereby notified to present same without delay.

FRANK P. O'DONNELL, Assignee of James D. Gunn.

At Cincinnati Mary K. Perham sued for divorce from William H. Perham. Drunkenness, cruelty and failure to provide is alleged. Mrs. Perham was formerly Mrs. Charles Shockley, and both parties are former residents of this city.

A small mistake appears in the enrolled Election bill. It was the intention of the framers of the bill to say that if a man wanted to vote for some one whose name is not on the printed ballot, he might write it on with a black pencil. Instead the bill reads: "A black ink stencil."

JOSEPH BOYER, who was arrested by Captain E. W. Fitzgerald last March and sentenced to two years for breaking into railroad cars at Foster, and who subsequently broke jail at Brooksville, is in hoc at Portsmouth, where he is held in $800 for stealing a horse. Yesterday Captain Fitzgerald saw him there and he wanted to be brought here to serve his time in the Kentucky Penitentiary, expecting it a lighter sentence than he will get in Ohio.

The night yardmen of the Southern Road employed at Ludlow quit work and declare they will not resume until a more congenial yardmaster is appointed over them.

NEW ORLEANS has just succeeded in floating $4,000,000 in four per cent. bonds at par. But in a season like this New Orleans ought to be able to float anything.

The Trumpet four mills at Covington were put up at auction, but there being but one bid and that for $11,000, the company refused to sacrifice the plant at that figure.

ABOUT sixty excursionists went to Cincinnati this morning to spend the day at the Zoo. The excursion was given under the auspices of the Christian Church Sunday-school.

The Turner-Parton feud in Eastern Kentucky will now probably end. Bill, the last of the Partons, has been killed by a son of Joel Smith, whom Parton had shot some time ago.

J. B. CLAY and wife have moved to their six-thousand-acre farm in Nicholas and Fleming counties. Mr. Clay will farm on a large scale, having 750 head of cattle, 2,500 sheep and 1,800 lambs.

At Midway Skidmore Bloomer was attacked at his home by Hiram Riggs and Robert Woodruff. Bloomer was shot by Woodruff in the left arm. Both men made their escape. No cause for shooting.

OUR neighbor of The Augusta Vindicator takes occasion to say: "The Fourth-of-July edition of THE MAYSVILLE PUBLIC LEADER was a nice affair. THE LEDGER is always at the head of the procession." Thanks.

AMONG the few Kentucky publishers with fat bank accounts are those of The Owensville Opinion. They have been issuing the paper for eighteen months, and have just now made a call on their delinquent patrons.

SAMUEL C. GRAHAM, an American citizen condemned to twenty years' imprisonment for the murder of a Mexican in the state of Jalisco, has, upon the recommendation of Congressman Springer and other prominent citizens, been pardoned by the Mexican Government.

The Finance Minister announced in the Dominion Parliament that in view of the heavy duty the United States had imposed upon eggs imported from Canada, the Dominion Government had decided to impose a duty of five cents per dozen upon eggs imported into Canada from the United States.

The sensational Lula Laughlin stories published for the last few days in the Cincinnati papers are all bosh. As THE LEDGER stated a few days ago, the tale emanates from a wilful mind, the possessor of which is vividly described in yesterday's Enquirer. A close observer of men can make a mighty good guess.

MR. AND MRS. J. C. BRAND celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their marriage at Urbana, O., on the Fourth, in the presence of three generations of their descendants.
